DETAILED ACTION

Specification

Applicant is reminded of the proper language and format for an abstract of the disclosure.

The abstract should be in narrative form and generally limited to a single paragraph on a separate sheet within the range of 50 to 150 words. It is important that the abstract not exceed 150 words in length since the space provided for the abstract on the computer tape used by the printer is limited. The form and legal phraseology often used in patent claims, such as "means" and "said," should be avoided. The abstract should describe the disclosure sufficiently to assist readers in deciding whether there is a need for consulting the full patent text for details.

The language should be clear and concise and should not repeat information given in the title. It should avoid using phrases which can be implied, such as, "The disclosure concerns," "The disclosure defined by this invention," "The disclosure describes," etc.

The abstract of the disclosure is objected to because of the use of the term "means" on line 7. Correction is required. See MPEP § 608.01(b).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

Claims 1-20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claims 1-20 are replete with errors under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph too numerous to mention specifically; however, examples of those errors are as follows:

In claims 1 and 7, line 2, applicant employs the phrase "in particular". The phrase "in particular" renders the claim indefinite because it is unclear whether the limitations following the phrase are part of the claimed invention. See MPEP § 2173.05(d).

In claims 1 and 7, line 6, applicant employs the term "and/or". This term is inherently unclear in that it does not allow one to determine the metes and bounds of the claimed feature/limitation (i.e., "feature A and B" is of clearly different scope than "feature A or B"). The lack of clarity renders the claimed subject matter indefinite.

In claim 1, line 4, applicant claims "...its motion...". There is a prior mention of several different features/limitations and it may be unclear as to which feature/limitation the "its" refers (It is recommended that the "its" be replaced by –the/said (feature)--). The lack of clarity renders the claimed subject matter indefinite.

As mentioned above, these are examples of errors under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph and each claim should be revisited and revised as necessary.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 1 and 7 would be allowable if rewritten or amended to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action.

Claims 2-6 and 8-20 would be allowable if rewritten to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action and to include all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
